Free Trade Agreements: Key Legal Issues and the Way Forward

The panel session, chaired by Apisith John Sutham, will explore key legal and regulatory issues relating to Free Trade Agreements from various perspectives and draw upon our panel's experience. Both the theoretical and practical considerations will be highlighted, including free trade agreements and protection (or, as some would say, protectionism) of strategic domestic industries and trade facilitation in the context of free trade agreements.

Apisith John Sutham, Senior Partner, Apisith & Alliance, Thailand

Apisith John Sutham is responsible for managing the firm's business, and client relationships, in addition to his legal practice which focuses on corporate and commercial laws, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property law, and international trade litigation and regulation.

Panelists

Anders Hedetoft, Partner, DELACOUR, Denmark

Anders handles international trading, including in particular contracts, mergers and acquisitions, customs and duties as well as transport law. He is also an experienced litigator. Anders is a certified arbitrator (the Arbitrator Education).

Dariel De Sousa, Consultant, Maddocks, Australia

Prior to re-joining Maddocks in 2008, Dariel was a Counsellor at the World Trade Organisation in Geneva, Switzerland. Here, Dariel advised on a range of policy areas, including intellectual property, competition policy and government procurement. After moving to the Legal Affairs Division, Dariel was also involved in the resolution of major international trade disputes in a range of sectors. Upon returning to Australia from Switzerland, Dariel was a WTO fellow at the Institute of International Trade in Adelaide.

Legal Aspects of Outsourcing

The panel session, chaired by Dr. Harald Endemann, will explore the main outsourcing issues in the various jurisdictions covered by our panel's experience. The session will focus on practical experiences highlighting common pitfalls and opportunities. An overview on new developments will be given by the panelists.

Dr Harald Endemann, Partner, Seufert Rechtsanwälte, Germany

Harald is an expert in corporate and labour law with a special focus on M&A and restructuring work. His clients come from various lines of business with Health Care being one of his core areas of practice.

Panelists

Lincoln Smith, Partner, Norman Waterhouse, Australia

Lincoln has considerable experience representing corporate clients in industrial, employment, occupational health and safety and discrimination proceedings across a range of jurisdictions and Courts, including the Federal Court, Supreme Courts of South Australia and Victoria, the Australian Industrial Relations Commission and its successor, Fair Work Australia.

John Sze, Partner, JTJB, Singapore

John advises clients on contentious and non-contentious work. For non-contentious work, John is regularly consulted by MNCs such as INVISTA and EVONIK, as well as major local companies such as Singpost and ST Marine, on Industrial, Construction, Employment, Sales and Outsourcing matters.

Giulia Comparini, Partner, Cocuzza & Associati, Italy

Giulia offers assistance to national and international clients in a variety of real estate transactions. She also specialises in commercial transactions in areas such as distribution, procurement, formation of sales and agent networks, establishment of joint ventures in Italy and abroad.

Stuart Clout, Partner, CBP, Australia

Stuart has experience in large scale outsourcing transactions, business process outsourcing (BPO), technology contracts and complex services and supply arrangements particularly in the telecoms and IT sector.

Jeroen Oehlen, Partner, Boels Zanders, The Netherlands

Jeroen is a Partner in the Business Transactions Practice Group at Boels Zanders and has extensive experience in representing clients in structuring and negotiating merger and acquisition transactions, joint ventures, supply chain and outsourcing agreements, technology licensing agreements, distribution agreements and other commercial contracts.

Data Protection Laws: A Review of Various Jurisdictions

The panel session, chaired by Chelsea Li, will explore the Data Protection Laws in the various jurisdictions covered by our panel's experience. The session will focus on practical experiences and operations in commercial world vs. regulatory compliance of data protection.

Chelsea Li, Partner, Jincheng Tongda & Neal Law Firm, China

Chelsea is a specialist in foreign direct investment (FDI), with particular expertise in advising on cross-border transactions for both international investors coming into China and PRC enterprises investing offshore, and she has substantial experience structuring joint ventures, direct investments and acquisitions in both hi-tech and traditional industry sectors.
