

AN INVITATION TO JTJB EASTERN MARITIME SEMINAR 2015

The JTJB Eastern Maritime Seminar 2015 is the inaugural event in a series of two annual seminars organised by Joseph Tan Jude Benny LLP specially for companies in the Eastern and Western offshore and maritime hubs in Singapore. The seminar will discuss legal and practical issues relevant to the shipping and maritime industry.

Date : 18 June 2015

Time : 2:30pm - 6:30pm (Registration from 2pm onwards)

Venue : Village Hotel Changi, Quad 1 (Lobby Level)

*Registration for this event is FREE. Light refreshments will be served followed by a cocktail reception after the seminar.

K Murali Pany

Managing Partner, JTJB

Laycan, Laytime, Demurrage, Detention and Despatch

- Commencement of laytime
- Expiry of laytime
- Understanding demurrage, detention and dispatch
- Arrest for unpaid demurrage, detention or dispatch

John Sze

Deputy Managing Partner, JTJB

Casualty Management and Collection of Evidence

- Importance of obtaining contemporaneous evidence; communications with opposing parties;
- Security for claims;
- Supporting the investigations, surveys, inspections
- Extended support of future legal proceedings

Siva Balakrishnan

Senior Associate, JTJB

Charterparties

- Common commercial issues on jurisdiction and dispute resolution clauses in charterparties
- Recent developments
- BIMCO bunker non-lien clause in time charters
- Bareboat charters and physical redelivery

Neil Macnab

*Master Mariner Consultant
TMC Marine*

Introduction to LNG Vessels, Recent Incidents and Potential Costs, LNG Bunkering Development and Considerations

- LNG vessel types
 - Recent incidents
 - Potential costs
- LNG bunkering
 - Infrastructure and operations
 - Potential risks/hazards
- LNG industry future developments
 - Potential risks
 - Incident/salvage considerations